

Khyber Medical college hosted its 1st National Research Conference 2022. The conference was attended by 105 teams and over 800 participants. The Conference was convened by Research Cell and Student's Research Committee KMC. The convener Prof. Dr. Bushra Iftikhar Associate Dean Research thanked the Dean KMC Prof. Mahmud Aurangzeb for providing such a platform to young researchers and also thanked participants for contributing to the scientific community.

There were participants from all over the country including Ayub Medical College, Saidu Medical College, Bacha Khan Medical College, Gajju Khan Medical College, Nowshera Medical College, Kohat Medical College, Gomal Medical College, KGMC, Rehman Medical College, Northwest School of Medicine, Pak-International Medical College, Peshawar Medical and Kabir medical College.. Teams also attended from other provinces including federal medical dental college, Fazia Medical college, HBS medical college, King Edward Medical College, Akhtar Saeed Medical college, women medical college, Abbottabad , Sardar Begum dental college among others. The conference comprised of research poster competition, verbal research competition and research workshops. On the occasion the chief guest prof. Dr. Mahmoud Aurangzeb Dean Khyber medical college emphasised the importance of research in medical field quoting his personal national and internal experiences. The guest of honour was Dr. Katerina A. Ronius , specialist in global health from Australia. The scientist speech was delivered by prof. dr. Muhammad Irfan who's is director research Peshawar medical college and explained the significance of Ethics in research. The other speaker was Dr. Sajjad Savul a researcher and medical specialist from USA, who presented a webinar on Evidence Based Research. The conference ended with prize distribution and vote of thanks.

